

ANTICIPATION RESPONSE GUIDE

Writer's name: _____

Student-reviewer's name: _____

Story title: _____

As you listen to each of your peers' vignettes of their stories, please answer the following questions, so he or she can know how you see the story. Remember, the more specific you are in responding, the better assistance you can provide.

1. After hearing the vignette, what do you think is happening? Give details to support your reasoning.
2. What words helped put a picture in your mind? Why?
3. Consider the five senses as you hear the vignette. What is the dominant sense that you hear in the reading? Explain. What sense do you want to have more of? Why?
4. After hearing the vignette, what do you think will happen next and why? Give details to support your reasoning.